

K-Love is extremely important to millions of people. Please keep them on the air as they presently are. For some people, this is thier only connection to a spiritual life. In the times that we are living in we need all the spiritual support we can get. I travel alot and look for K-Love stations daily. Thx for listening, Deb Heyl